

Biographical information:

Jean Garner Larned, a member of the renowned FBI Behavioral Science Unit (BSU), is a former Special Agent with the DEA and current criminal investigations instructor, researcher and case consultant with the BSU at the FBI Academy in Quantico, Virginia. In addition to the responsibilities glamorized in shows like 'Criminal Minds' and 'Silence of the Lambs', he also teaches 'New Agent Training' and the 'National Academy' which includes international and domestic law enforcement executives and leaders from around the world. He earned a Masters degree in Behavioral Science from Our Lady of the Lake University in San Antonio, Texas, and a Bachelors degree in Journalism from California State University Long Beach. Jean is a member of the Security Studies Research Team currently studying the impact of globalization on terrorism and the 'Global War on Terrorism'. Jean is an Adjunct Professor at the University of Virginia. Concurrently, Jean is an Army officer in the United States Army Reserves working with wounded soldiers who have returned from Iraq and Afghanistan through the 'Warrior Transition Units' program.

Jeffrey Stillings is currently a Supervisory Special Agent with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Jeff has been with ICE, and it's predecessor, the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) since 1995, serving as a Border Patrol Agent, Immigration Agent, and Special Agent. He has been with the Milwaukee office since 2002.

Jeff began his law enforcement career in 1988 as a police officer in West Boylston, Massachusetts. After seven years as a police officer, Jeff joined the U.S. Border Patrol in 1995 and was stationed in Freer, Texas. He worked along the U.S. – Mexican Border and served as a K-9 Handler working checkpoint operations and narcotics interdiction.

In 1998, Jeff transferred to Clarksburg, West Virginia, where he served as an Immigration Agent for the INS and served as Liaison to the FBI at their Criminal Justice Information Services Division.

After 9-11, Jeff returned to the Border Patrol as a Senior Patrol Agent in Niagara Falls, NY, and was soon after selected as a Special Agent with the INS in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Jeff is a graduate of the Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles Police Academy (valedictorian) and the United States Border Patrol Academy. A Summa Cum Laude graduate from Wheeling Jesuit University in Wheeling, WV, Jeff received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Organizational Leadership and Development. He also has an Associate in Science Degree in Criminal Justice from Quinsigamond College in Worcester, Massachusetts. Jeff is a graduate of the USDA New Leader Program, and in 2006, he was selected as the Law Enforcement Officer of the Year by the Federal Law Enforcement Officer's Association in Wisconsin.